HOMECOMING

QUEEN MARY MARTI

Rain and cold weather could not dampen our sports at our first Homecoming, October 9, 1960. The two-day gala celebration started off with a bang at the pep rally and bonfire the night before.

Tension reached its peak as Mary Marti was crowned queen of North Scott's first Homecoming. Margo Frye, Landa Kuster, Joyce McAllister, and Nancy Boll comprised the Royal Court. The Queen and her court were then entertained and a royal proclamation was read commanding everyone to come to the game.

What a game it was! The upset of the season came when the Mighty Lancers trounced Durant 27-0. After the game, everyone celebrated the victory at the Homecoming Dance held in the gym. The perfect end to North Scott's first Homecoming.

These eleven girls were chosen as candidates for Homecoming Queen. Standing are: Zita Madden, Cindy Oetzmman, Joyce McAllister, Wanda Guthardt, and Marietta Holtz. Seated are Margo Frye, Mary Marti, Landa Kuster, Nancy Boll, Shirley Vens, and Mary Ellis.

The moment that everyone anxiously awaited had finally arrived, Mary Marti was crowned Queen at North Scott's first homecoming.

Queen Mary and her Royal Court were presented at the Homecoming Dance.

"The Night of January 16th," a three act play by Ayn Rand, completely reveals a courtroom trial based on an actual case. Karen Andre, secretary, was on trial for the murder of her former employer, Bjorn Faulkner.

A unique feature is that twelve of the most important members of the cast had never attended rehearsal. They were the jurors who were selected from the audience immediately before the performance. The verdict they rendered decided which of the two endings to the play was used--sentencing or acquittal.

On November 13 and 14, despite the bad snowstorm, the North Scott gymnasium was the scene of this courtroom trial as the first all-school play of the year began at 8:00. November 13 the jurors found Karen Andre innocent; however, on Saturday night the decision reached by the court was "Guilty as Charged."

BACHELORS CAPTURE

KING CANDIDATES--BACK ROW: Dale Bergert, Lynn Moeller, Dennis Timmerman, Dale Hamann, Eldon Koch, Norman Meyer. FIRST ROW: Jim Ellis, Jerry Parrott, Mervyn Thede, and David Barnet.

Capturing a bachelor was the object of all senior high girls before or on February 6th. The first official girl-ask-boy dance was held on the 6th of February in the gymnasium. Theme for the dance was "Icicle Island."

The name, BACHELOR'S CAPTURE will continue on through the school's history, but the dance theme will be changed each year.

Gene McDuff's dance orchestra furnished the music while starry eyed students danced around an island in the center of the gym.

King, Norman Meyer, was attended by Jerry Parrott, Dave Barnet, Dale Bergert, and Eldon

Following the dance the gals took the fellows out to dine. Many exhausted couples arrived home early the following morning, but those couples weren't nearly so exhausted as the girl's finances.

THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER, a comedy by Moss Hart and George Kaufman, was the second all-school, three act play presented at North Scott during 1960.

The plot revolved around a humorous tragedy which took place in Masalia, a small town in Ohio, when a famous celebrity, Sheridan Whiteside, slipped on the doorsteps of the Ernest Stanley residence and broke his hip. Unable to move, Mr. Whiteside is forced to remain and convalesce.

During the convalescence period, numerous incidents occurred--his secretary falls head over heels in love with a local newspaper editor, several eccentric movie stars and friends visit him, gifts such as an Egyptian mummy case, penguins, and an octopus are sent to him, he becomes involved with Harriet, the whacky sister of Ernest Stanley and many more humorous incidents added to the success of the play.

ATHLETIC BOOSTERS

During the year, the Athletic Boosters sponsored many sports events. On March 29, they sponsored the annual athletic banquet in the high school gym and cafeteria. The speaker for the banquet was Mr. Ray Elliot, Director of Athletics, of University of Illinois. His topic was "Initiative of an Athlete." Also at the banquet all players were introduced and the letter winners were announced.

Another annual event sponsored by the athletic boosters was the "Dandy Dads" against the Sophomore basketball squad, where the "Dads" were defeated by the Sophomores.

PROM

"Holland Holiday" was the theme for the second annual North Scott Junior-Senior Prom which was sponsored and planned by the Junior Class. The couples danced to the music of Harold Whitner from 8:30 to 12:30. The gymnasium was decorated overhead with green and white streamers and featured as the center of attraction a large Dutch Windmill with revolving vanes. Gaily colored tulips and green grass surrounded the windmill completing the beautiful landscape. The "Holland Holiday" theme was carried out by the table decorations of wooden shoes filled with tulips.

Baccalaureate was held May 29th at 8:00 p.m. The featured speaker was Reverend Marlo Peterson of the Faith Lutheran Church in Eldridge. Doctor Roberts, president of Parsons College, presented the commencement address. Kathern Claussen and Arlan Lamont represented the class of '60 on June first at the speaker's stand with last words of wisdom to the class at their graduation service.

HONOR STUDENTS--Carole Thompson, Dennis Stutzel, Arlan Lamont, Melva Lafrenz, Lenore Inmann, Margo Frye, Kathy Claussen, Evelyn Albrecht.

Mervyn Thede receives Good Citizenship Award from W. W. Brubaker.

Seniors march in to receive diploma.

To the underclassmen this picture is a symbol of the future, of things to come, but to the senior, this is a goal finally achieved--the climax of twelve years' of hard work. It is the end of our high school life.

As you think more about this picture, it brings to mind many memories of the past years; our first Prom, Homecoming celebrations, the fun at games, the competition of class elections, the all-school plays, the club activities. Yes, these are some of the fond memories of school, but even more will we remember the little things--waiting in lunch line, conversation by our locker, waiting for test results, the friendships we made, and many other pleasant memories.

These are the things that we think about as we take our last walk through the building, and . . .

"Our footsteps echo down the hall and disappear."

As we review the 1959-60 school year, North Scott can look with pride to many accomplishments. Our faculty completed an evaluation of our school in December. During January, a North Central Association Committee reviewed the faculty appraisal and made an evaluation of their own. These studies showed that all phases of the school, curricular as well as extra-curricular, have met the standards demanded of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. In April we were admitted to membership in this association.

Congratulations and thanks to all who have helped us reach this goal.

GUIDANCE SERVICES

Guidance incorporates a number of different services which are offered here at North Scott and are available to each and every student. Two faculty members are responsible for carrying out these services. They are Mrs. Amelia Thiede and Mr. Donald Anderson. One of the services of the Guidance Department is counseling, and this activity occupies the greatest amount of the counselor's time. Conferences with individual students usually deal with problems or questions concerning educational or vocational plans and personal relationships. The counselors are available for interviews whenever the students so desire. When discussing educational and occupational plans, reference is made to the collection of college and trade school catalogs and the occupational information files.

The other phases of the guidance program include assisting in the orientation of new students and the organizing of an adequate testing program. A follow-up program of graduates and drop-outs result in a constant evaluation of the total school curriculum and is also a guidance function.

Mr. Anderson interviews Pam Snyder, junior, and helps plan her senior year schedule.

Sophomore student, Trudy Lantau visits with Mrs. Thiede to outline her schedule for the next school year.

LIBRARY

During the last two years the library has made a tremendous advancement. Starting from empty shelves, Mrs. Bell has filled the shelves with over two-thousand books and the library now subscribes to over sixty different periodicals.

The ever cheerful Mrs. Bell does all the complicated processing--ordering the books, conditioning, pasting, stamping, setting up a system and actually getting the books on the shelf and having the library functioning properly to serve the students in the best way possible.

A staff of both junior and senior high girls aid Mrs. Bell in running the library in an efficient manner by checking out books, taking fines, reshelving and keeping the magazines in order.

Dave McLaughlin passes out a pay check to Loren Dalton.

Andy Anderson and Dave McCubbin cleaning up halls after school.

CUSTODIANS

AND KITCHEN

The kitchen staff headed by Mrs. Lantau are from left to right: Mrs. Vitter, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. DeCock, Mrs. Hanssen, and Mrs. Nagel.

Mrs. Lantau and some of the kitchen helpers.

STAFF

Student bus drivers for this year were: John Dawson, Norm Hartz, Larry Oetzmann, Lloyd Keppy, Steve Dies, Gene Meyer, Bill O'Conner, Lynn Moeller, and Wesley Hansen.

Walter Gluntz, Eldon Gluntz, and John Kuhl were responsible for keeping our fleet of busses in proper running order.

TRANSPORTATION

Snow and rain made a hard job for the bus drivers this year. Much of the time the roads were almost impassable. Working under difficult conditions our bus drivers have succeeded in transporting us safely to school throughout the winter.

Seniors

We the class of '60 are proud of ourselves and of our achievements for we have made this last year at North Scott all that it has been and meant to us. Not knowing what lies in the future and realizing that this is the end of formal education for many of us, we watched the year pass with mingled emotions.

Realizing the need for tradition at North Scott and in hopes of establishing one, the Senior girls originated plans for the Bachelor's Capture before turning the event over to all senior high girls.

Leading the class this year were four officers:

President	Dave Barnet
Vice-President	Margo Frye
Secretary	Shirley Stender
Treasurer	Zita Madden

Senior Sponsors whose help was appreciated:

Miss Widigen
Mr. Anderson
Mr. Sehmman
Mr. Clemmensen

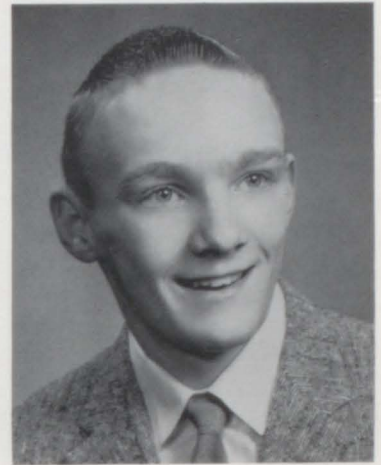

Senior Classmen serving on student council were: Dale Hamann, Rita Holtz, Mary Marti, Dixie Meyers, and Carolyn Tobey. Dale presided over the council as President.

Foremost in our memories will be the year's highlights: The Prom, Senior Class will and prophesies, the picnic and graduation. We, however, do not look upon graduation as the end, for we shall remain the Class of '60 knowing that we are the only group that will ever do quite what we have done to be remembered so well.

SENIOR PICNIC

 Juniors

JUNIOR

One of the events that will be outstanding in our minds when we look back to our Junior year, will be the Junior-Senior Prom. The "Holland Holiday" theme was carried out very successfully by all the committees. The proceeds from serving refreshments after the play, working at the concession stand, and a sock hop were used to finance the Prom.

From the many capable juniors, class officers, and Student Council members were chosen. The class officers were; President, Gary Ewoldt; Vice-President, Lorna Tank; Secretary, Mary Wiese; and Treasurer, Jim Schneckloth. The Student Council representatives were; Dick Helble, Eleanor Schmalz, Sandra Ewoldt, Greig Carlin, and Bev Amhof.

Many class members have taken part in the extra-curricular activities, including plays, sports, speech contests, the Lance, and school clubs.

We are very grateful for the guidance and assistance we have received from the administration, teachers, and especially our advisors, Mr. Higby, Mrs. Hoopman, Mr. McCleary, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Oberg, Mr. Roskamp, Mr. Roush, Mr. Scott, and Mrs. Sible.

SOPHOMORE

This school term provided an opportunity for the members of the Sophomore Class to pursue their varied interests. Among the courses elected by the students were Spanish, geometry, typing, biology, home economics, vocational and industrial arts. The majority of the class members were instructed in driver's training, a course which is considered a highlight of the year.

Student Council members, Vicki Frye, Fran Kreiter, Maureen Thede, Bonnie Meinert and Cliff Meyer, represented us in many important matters. We also boasted a large number of participants in band, pep club, biology club, glee club, FHA, FFA, speech, dramatics and athletics.

We members of the "Class of '62" are satisfied with our achievements and feel that we are prepared to meet the challenges of future years at North Scott High School.

*F*reshmen

As freshmen this year, our class experienced and enjoyed many new and exciting things. We were represented in many functions, F. H. A., F. F. A., chorus, band, pep club, sport activities, style show, and many other organizations and activities. Freshmen had important and leading parts in many of these. An added responsibility and new opportunities are acquired from all of these activities.

Three freshmen girls had the experience of being freshman and sophomore cheerleaders.

We have reason to be proud of Freshmen, Vonnie Miller and Dean Schaff, who won state recognition with their typing skills. Also, three boys eager to go far in basketball are Norman Lau and Terry Carstens, who played on the sophomore team and Don Johnson who played on the Varsity team.

Class officers for this year are Sandy Long, President; Norman Lau, Vice-President; Marilyn LaMar, Secretary; and Ila Jean Rock, Treasurer. Student Council members are Joyce Schmidt, Vonnie Miller, Joan Helble, Nancy Keppy, and Janice McDannel.

We are thankful for the help of our class advisors, Miss Shope, Mrs. Albrecht, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Schmidt, and Mr. Peters have given us this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The following people were elected as officers of the Junior High Student Council: Randy Siemsen, Secretary; Peggy Schneckloth, Vice-President; Jack Darland, President; and Darryl Paulsen, Treasurer.

Student Council was a new experience for the 7th and 8th graders. This is the first opportunity they have had at student government. On October 10th the officers attended the Student Council Convention at Ames to learn more about Student Council work. When they returned home they went to work on their constitution, which has recently been adopted. The major projects of the council were: Orientation Day, Locker Clean-Up Day, and a Valentine Day dance. They climaxed the year with a Junior High Day held on May 25.

STUDENT

After the election of the following officers:

President	Dale Hamann
Vice President	Dick Helble
Secretary	Eleanor Schmalz
Treasurer	Dixie Myers
Advisor	Mr. Anderson

The Senior High Student Council for 1959-1960 began.

The Student Council took over the first Homecoming activities (Bonfire, Game, Dance) thus setting the precedent for the years to come.

During the winter months, a magazine sale was held. The profit from this is to be set aside for a foreign exchange student in future years.

COUNCIL

Throughout the year work was continued on the Student Council Constitution, under the direction of Dale Hamann - President. It is now ready to go into effect.

The style show was presented by the home economics classes on May 3, 1960, at 6:30 p.m. The theme this year was "The Rainbow of Fashion."

RAINBOW OF FASHION

PLAY SCHOOL

The Second Annual Playschool was held in the latter part of May.

The advanced home economics class was in charge. The purposes of the playschool were to give the children a chance to see what kindergarten will be like, and to give the girls a chance to work with younger children.

The children played games, fingerpainted, frosted cupcakes, and listened to records. At the close of playschool, all of the children received a certificate of promotion.

TALENT SHOW

May 20-21 was the date of North Scott's second annual talent show. "Little Red School House" was the central theme and was carried throughout the show.

Dave Barnet and Melva Lafrenz originated the script and, with the help of others and various committees, organized the show and prepared it for publication; Mr. Oberg was the teacher advisor.

Talent was selected among students in the North Scott School District, and ranged from square dancing and humorous pantomimes to religious singing. All the talent helped make this second talent show a success and enjoyed by all.

SPEECH ACTIVITIES

"Antic Spring" was the play that advanced to state. The cast contained:

Denny Koch
Frances Kreiter
Mike Auliff
Sandy Ewoldt
Virginia Pollock
Fred Volbeer

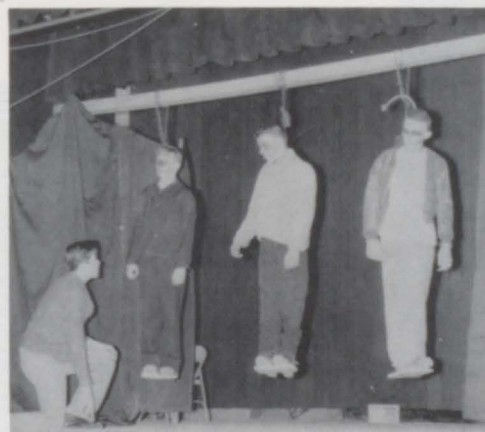

Above, a scene from "Antic Spring" shows Sandy Ewoldt and Mike Auliff making up after quarreling.

CHEERLEADERS

Hi Mary - Remember our exciting snow party at Sandy's. Sure took us a long time
 to get home.
 So good & see you
 at Fairyland!

Carol

Cheering the sports teams on this year were the three cheerleading squads. The varsity demonstrates the cheer they used to open each home basketball game.

Frosty nights and bitter winds could not keep this band of cheerleaders or the faithful crowd from turning out to support the football team. From the expressions on the squad's faces it was quite a game.

Pep rallies were held throughout the football and basketball seasons to boost school spirits and team support.

Varsity cheerleaders leading supporters with a rousing cheer are: Landa Kuster, Eleanor Schmalz, Sandra Ewoldt, Joyce Werthmann, and Joyce Britton.

Mary,
 Tell - we've really had fun? and tonight
 we've just been elected.
 Excitement? Excitement?
 Next stop the Queen for you.

Cheering for all reserve games were:
 Left to Right: Carol Madden, Virginia Pollock,
 Bonnie LaBarge, and Connie Carber.

Good luck to a really sweet senior.
 Love,
 Ann

Remember Biology
 Club, Mixed Chorus,
 all the picnics,
 and dances.
 And we've got a whole year left to think up goody things to do.

Love,
 Ellie

Kathy Claeys, Eunice Peters, Ann Lage, Margo Frye, and Evelyn Albrecht served as cheerleaders for all sophomore squads taking part in athletic contests.

North Scott's second football season got off to a bad start but they finished with an excellent record for their second year. After losing the first two games, they came back to win six out of seven, ending up with six wins and only three losses.

The Lancers' home field was not completed until after the start of the season so the first two games were played on Bettendorf's field. Even when they did get their own field most of the games were played in the rain.

Coaches Ray Oles and Gresham Roskamp were well satisfied with the way the boys were always putting forth their best effort for North Scott. The teams of future years will have a great tradition to carry on.

Two Lancers incurred injuries in game.

Teamwork pays off, as Denny Timmerman goes around the end for a gain.

BASKETBALL

The '59-'60 season saw the return of the entire first string from the previous year. Along with these were many promising players from last year's sophomore team. Coach Jim Nelson was glad to see some of these develop into first string players.

The season record of 9 wins and 11 losses does not give a true picture of the season. A closer look at the scores reveals that we lost five games by two points or less. This is a small indication of the tremendous spirit and determination of the players. To them the game was never lost or won until the final buzzer went off. They were in there playing their best all the time.

In tournament play at the end of the season the team won their first game but lost the second one by only five points. The final game of the season was a victory over the faculty in a benefit game for the athletic boosters.

Managers clean up
after the game.

B A S E B A L L

In terms of wins and losses the 1960 baseball season was not too successful, but the success of a season is measured in more than wins and losses. It takes years to develop a winning team, but North Scott is well on its way.

Because of rainy weather the team did not get to play its full schedule. Poor weather also delayed final completion of our field, hence no home games were scheduled.

The team developed quite well this year and will keep on developing in future years. The players learned to work together and play good ball. Coaches Clark McCleary and Gresham Roskamp were very pleased with the way the boys progressed throughout the season and are looking for a good team in years to come.

FIRST ROW: L. Dannatt, D. Helble, M. Twigg, D. Bergert, C. Meyer, J. Parrott, B. Goettsch, M. Davis, M. Wiese, J. Stoskopf. SECOND ROW: L. Kearney, J. Frazier, J. Schneckloth, E. Koch, N. Meyer, D. Thomsen, L. Koch, W. Weiskopf, D. Johnson, J. Ficke, Manager. THIRD ROW: C. Hill, R. Gromewald, K. Grell, B. Fuller, O. Grell, B. Mohr, Coach McCleary.

TRACK

North Scott's track team of 1960 has made an outstanding record of accomplishments throughout this season. These boys went forth with the goal to achieve honor and recognition for North Scott High School and each pride themselves as being one of "North Scott's track men".

Bill Frazier, North Scott senior, excelled in his goal and left a record that will well be remembered, not only by fellow team-mates, coaches, and students; but throughout the entire country. Bill ran a record half mile in 1:53 at Drake.

Coaches Ray Oles and Richard Sehmman, as well as the rest of the school, are proud of their track team and they have good reason to be so. Trophies and medals shine in the trophy case marking a job well done.

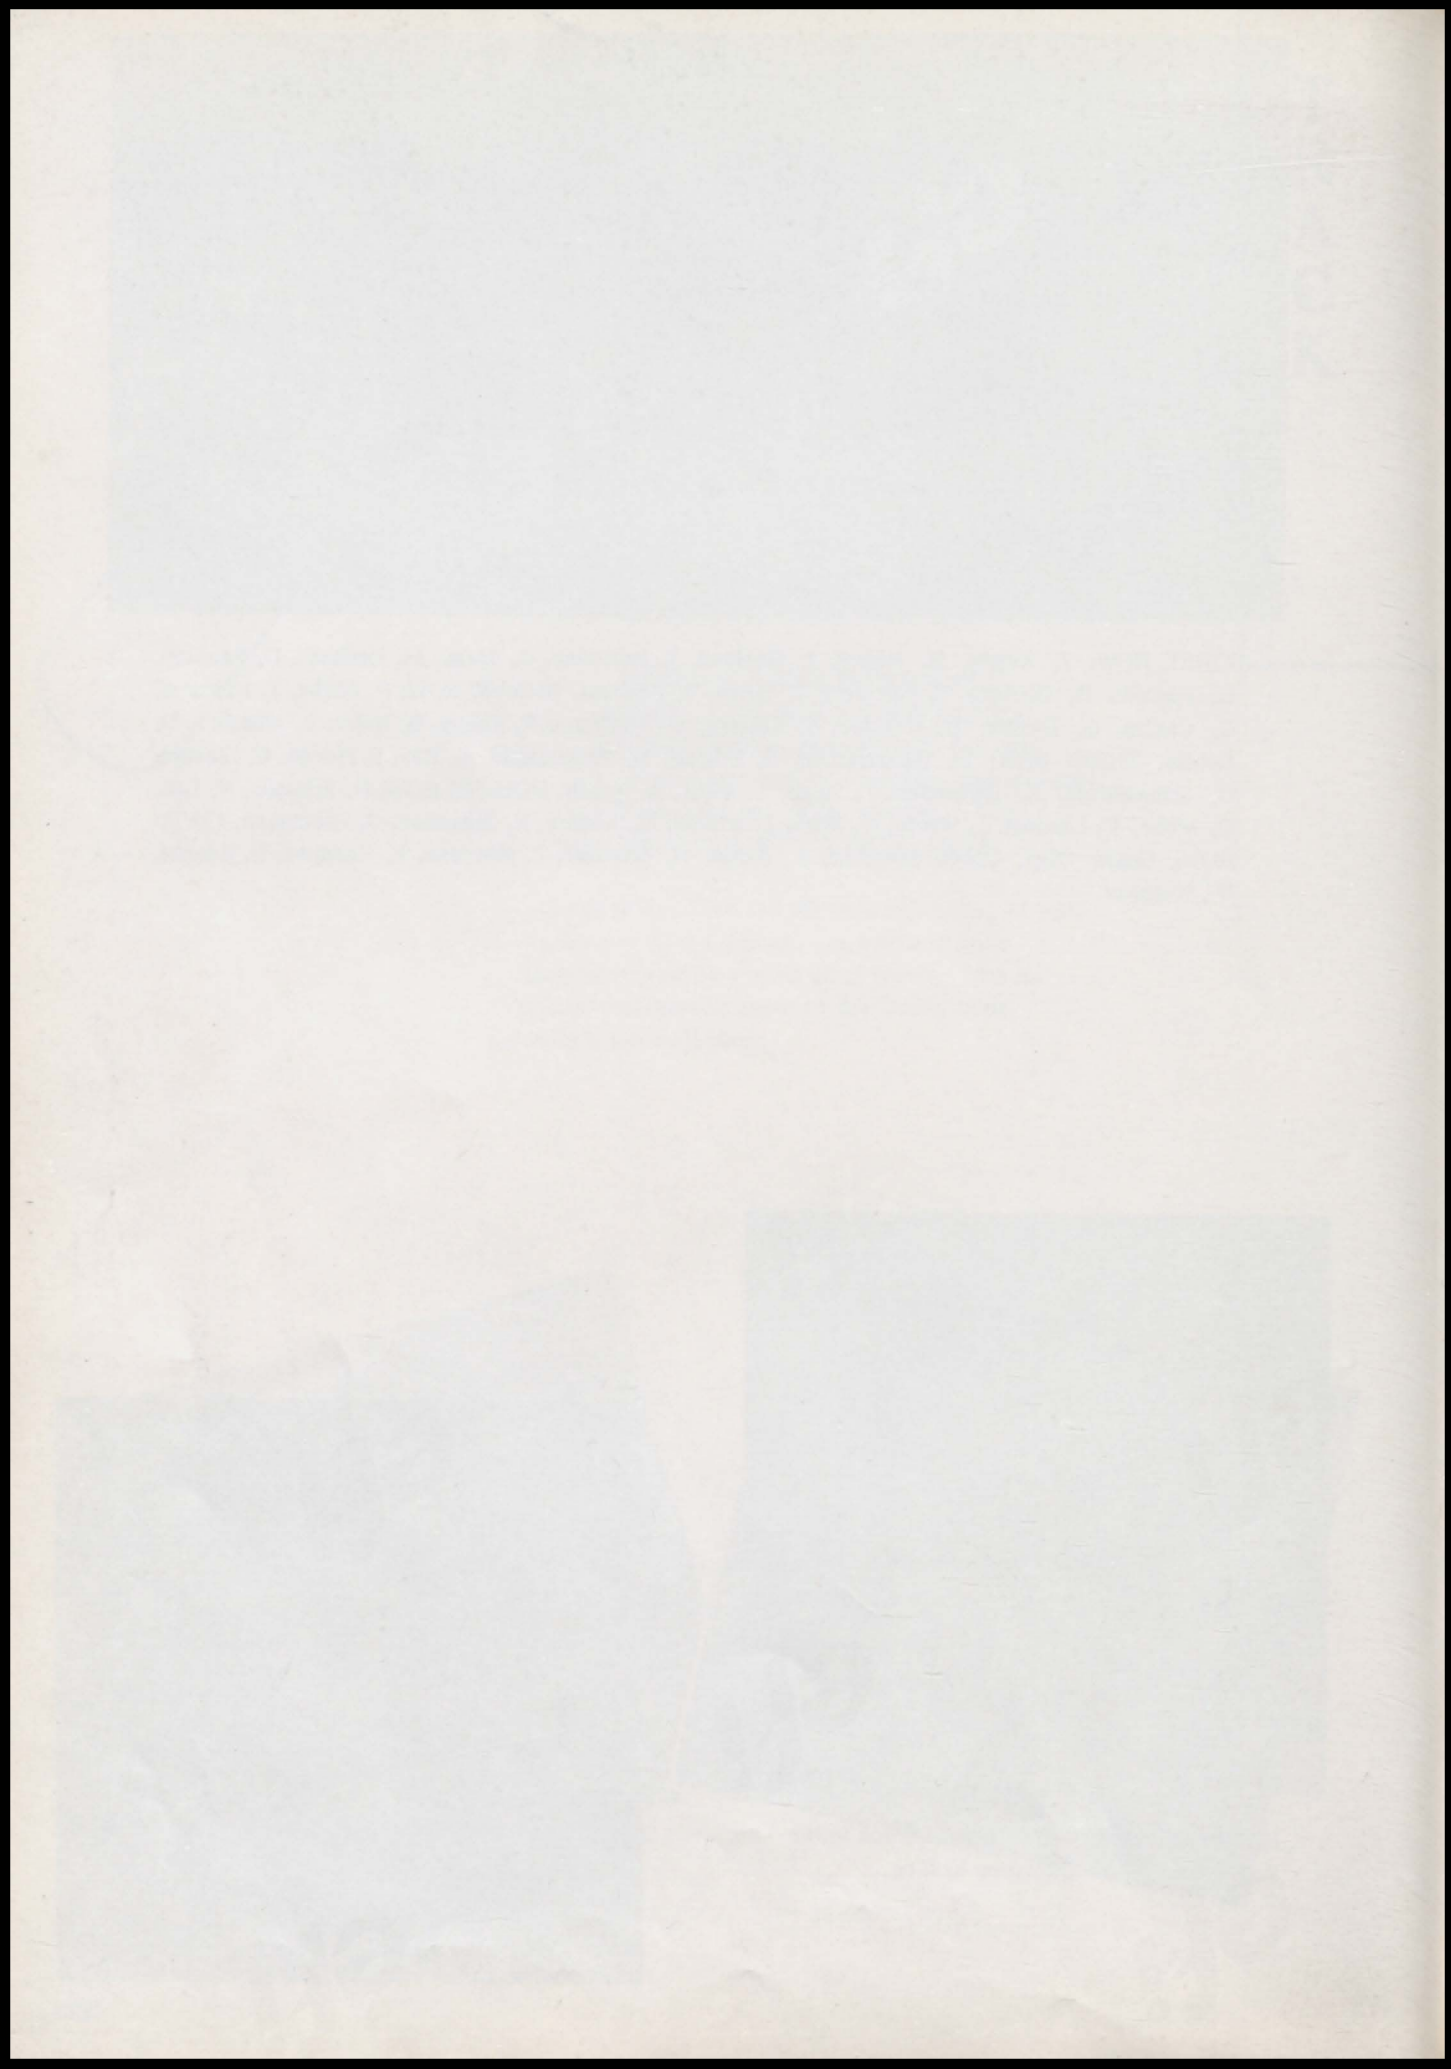

FIRST ROW: J. Keppy, B. Keppy, J. Darland, J. Schroder, G. Spray, M. Keehner, D. Paulson, L. Paaske, D. Berodt, T. Carsten, A. Spies, S. Graham. SECOND ROW: P. Kirby, J. Klemme, G. Carlin, G. Ewoldt, B. Frazier, J. Koberg, G. Hoffman, R. Keppy, B. Holst, K. Wiggers, D. Rohlf. THIRD ROW: D. Timmerman, R. Engler, L. Gromewald, A. Kay, S. Horne, G. Martan, G. Schneckloth, K. Otezmenn, J. Pewe, J. Kuhl, D. Smith. FOURTH ROW: D. Schnoor, N. Lau, D. Mohr, P. Lamont, J. Wiese, D. Koch, J. Wilcox, M. Adams, K. Schroder, G. Otezmenn. FIFTH ROW: Coach Oles, Coach Sehmman, A. Kirby, G. Schaffer, L. Klemme, K. Knapper, D. Adams, D. Knapper.

Bill Frazier gets a well earned track letter as the rest of the lettermen look on.

Dear Mary,
 I don't think I ever thought of writing on this page.
 There were tractors, I decided the year in '60 didn't we? I'll always be ready for the Prom.
 It was a success, in quite a way. I'll always remember the preparations,
 sure we were in on last, refreshment for something or other like Helen dances, Bachelor's Capture, I suppose our Senior year will be worse.
 I hope you get something more done as mixed chorus librarian than I did last year. It takes lots of time and work.
 Good luck,
 Bonnie
